

REECE DOYLE

OBJECTIVE

To web sling my way into the tech world, leaving a trail of musical notes, laughter, and a hat collection behind.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

1. High School Music Maestro

- NSW Department of Education, Newcastle NSW (2009-2022)
- Masterfully conducted teenage symphonies and navigated the treacherous waters of high school melodrama.
- Survived countless recorder renditions of "Hot Cross Buns" and lived to tell the tale.

2. Rockstar of Education

- Juggled sheet music and rebellious power chords for 13 glorious years.
- Successfully transformed musical illiterates into symphony enthusiasts (or at least got them to stop using their instruments as swords).

Musical Maverick:

- Rockstar Status: 20 years of shredding guitars and drumming to my own beat.
- Genre Mastery: From classical to punk, my musical palette is as diverse as my collection of eccentric hats.

Superhero Stint:

- Alias: Web Slinger Reece (just kidding, it's SpiderReece!)
- Superpower: Ability to untangle even the messiest of code with a single click.

EDUCATION

- Current Endeavour: Aspiring Full Stack Web Developer (because coding is just like composing, right?)
- Australian Institute of Music (AIM):
 - Bachelor of Music (2006-2009)
 - Majored in the art of creating musical magic and surviving impromptu recorder concerts.

- University of New England:

- Bachelor of Education (Music) (2009-2011)

- Honed the skills to transform chaos into melodic symphonies while navigating the tumultuous seas of high school education.

HOBBIES

- Moonlighting as Spiderman: Climbing walls, saving the day, and occasionally busting a dance move when crime is slow.
- Newcastle Knights Superfan: Cheering louder than a rock concert for my favourite rugby league team.
